

The SHEPHERD'S WAY SAR CAMP

Introduction to Search & Rescue Workshop

A workshop for community volunteers focusing on providing an introduction to search & rescue skills.

June 10-12, 2010

Escondido Police Department

1163 N Center City Parkway

Escondido, Ca 92026

Schedule for Training includes:

Thursday (6:00pm to 9:30pm) (Classroom)

- Overview of Search and Rescue Response
- Search and Rescue Resources
- Incident Command System
- Critical Components of an Effective Response

Friday (6:00pm to 9:30pm) (Classroom)

- Land Navigation
- Search Theory
- Search Tactics and Techniques
- Lost Person Behavior

Saturday 8:00am to 3:00pm (Field Exercises)

- Introduction to Mantracking
- Introduction to Grid Searching/Route Searching

Saturday 5:00pm to 7:00pm (Classroom)

- Search and Rescue TECHNICIAN III Certification Test

This outline prepares the student for the Search and Rescue Technician Level III certification from the National Association of Search and Rescue (NASAR).

The cost of the training is $75.00. If the student wishes to take the NASAR Search and Rescue Technician Level III test an additional $75.00 is required.

Students should pre-register and provide a $50.00 deposit for the classes so adequate class materials can be provided.

Make checks payable and mail to the following address no later than June 4, 2010
Shepherd's Way SAR CAMP
708 Ridge Rd
Pensacola, Fl. 32514

Contact Carrie after June 4, 2010 for a local address for registration.

Walk-in's will be allowed to attend but seating is limited to 100 students.

If you have any questions please feel free to email:
Brad Dennis @ search4missing@yahoo.com or
Carrie McGonigle @sarteamamber@yahoo.com

Disclaimer: Completion of the Shepherd's SAR Camp "Introduction to Search and Rescue Workshop" does not authorize or certify students to perform search and rescue duties. Students are encouraged to join available search and rescue units to continue their training. Search and Rescue duties should be monitored by law enforcement or emergency management officials.

Mandatory Equipment List

The following items are MANDATORY to participate in the Introduction to Search and Rescue Workshop.

CLASSROOM: Note taking material

FIELD EXERCISES:

- Long Pants
- Boots
- Backpack
- Food or Snacks
- Minimum – 2 liters of water
- Orienteering compass
- Whistle
- Measuring device (small tape measure)
- Hiking Stick (42" minimum) with rubber bands or O'rings
- Personal first aid kit – personal medication
- Flashlight (extra batteries)
- Note taking material
- Other suggested items:
- Sunscreen/Sunglasses
- Hat
- Gloves
- Insect Repellant
- Gaiters or chaps or snake boots

The Shepherd's Way

Search and Rescue Training & Consultants

Make checks payable to:

Shepherd's Way SAR CAMP
708 Ridge Rd
Pensacola, Fl. 32514

Student Registration Form

Course: _____ Course Date: _____ Tuition: _____

Name: _____ Age: _____

Address: _____ Date of Birth: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Home Phone: _____ Mobile Phone: _____

Occupation: _____

Please list any medical training/certifications: _____

Please list any search and rescue training/certifications: _____

Please list your personal course learning objectives: _____

Emergency Contact:

Name: _____ Relation: _____

Telephone: _____